Disabled and Homeless Receive Housing Through California Department of Housing and Community Development Program

SACRAMENTO – The California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) Director Lucetta Dunn announced awards of more than $13.4 million through HCD's Multifamily Housing Program – Supportive Housing Component. The funds will be used for the development of 174 apartment homes that will accommodate at least 196 persons who are disabled and homeless or at-risk of becoming homeless. Funding is also provided for the development of space for supportive services such as counseling, job or health services or childcare.

Dunn stated, "Business, Transportation and Housing Agency Secretary Sunne Wright McPeak and I are dedicated to helping provide safe, stable, and affordable housing that will improve the lives of Californians. Funds announced today will provide housing facilities for the homeless and disabled as well as access to essential services for the neediest of our society."
